GRAINCORP LODGES REVISED PORT TERMINAL ACCESS UNDERTAKING

GrainCorp confirmed that the company would today lodge a revised port terminal access Undertaking with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC).

The lodgement today follows the completion of the process yesterday of the assessment of the original draft Undertaking lodged with the ACCC on 15th April 2009.

The revised Undertaking to be lodged today was developed followed extensive feedback provided by the ACCC in its initial draft determination released on 6th August 2009.

GrainCorp is confident that the revised Undertaking will meet all of the ACCC's requirements, and that the company will successfully gain bulk wheat export accreditation from Wheat Exports Australia by 30th September 2009.
